1 Reporting entity and going concern

Emerald Bay Energy Inc. (the “Company”) was incorporated under the Business Corporations Act of Alberta on May 9, 1997 and is listed on the TSX Venture exchange. The Company is engaged in the exploration for and development of petroleum and natural gas properties principally in Alberta and Texas. The Company is listed on the TSX Venture Exchange under the symbol “EBY.V”. The Company’s registered head office is located at #3A, 4015 – 1 Street South East, Calgary, Alberta, Canada T2G 4X7.

At September 30, 2014, the Company had not yet achieved profitable operations, had accumulated a deficit of $16,765,256 since its inception (December 31, 2013 - $15,929,544), had negative cash flows from operations of $704,858 (December 31, 2013 - $19,622) and had a working capital deficiency of $4,738,193 (December 31, 2013 - $4,445,030) (defined as current assets less current liabilities), and expects to incur further losses in the development of its business. The ability to continue as a going concern is dependent on obtaining continued financial support, completing public equity financing, or generating profitable operations in the future. Management is committed to raising additional capital to meet its exploration and operating obligation, however, additional equity financing is subject to the global financial markets and economic conditions, which have recently been disrupted and are volatile, and the debt and equity markets, which have been distressed, particularly for junior petroleum and natural gas companies. During the period ended September 30, 2014, the Company successfully completed a private placement (note 11(b)). All of these factors, together with weak natural gas prices and the current unstable economic conditions, indicate the existence of material uncertainties related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt as to whether the Company can continue as a going concern and, therefore, it may be unable to realize its assets and discharge its liabilities in the normal course of business. These Interim Consolidated Financial Statements do not reflect the adjustments to the carrying value of assets and liabilities, the reported revenues and expenses, and the balance sheet classifications that would be necessary if the going concern assumption was not appropriate. Any adjustments necessary to the Interim Consolidated Financial Statements if the Company ceases to be a going concern could be material. These Interim Consolidated Financial Statements are dated December 1, 2014.

2 Basis of presentation

a) Statement of compliance:

The interim condensed consolidated financial statement have been prepared in accordance with International Accounting Standards (“IAS”) 34 – “Interim Financial Reporting” as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board (“IASB”) using the accounting policies and methods of computation disclosed in the Company’s audited consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2013. These interim condensed consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the audited consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2013 and exclude certain disclosures required to be included in annual consolidated financial statements.

b) Judgments and estimates:

In preparing these interim condensed consolidated financial statements, management makes judgments, estimates and assumptions that affect the application of accounting policies and the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, income and expense. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

The significant judgments made by management in applying the accounting policies and the key sources of estimation uncertainty were the same as those that applied to the audited annual consolidated financial statements as at and for the year ended December 31, 2013.

3 Recent accounting pronouncements

The following standard has been issued and is effective for annual periods beginning on or after January 1, 2018. The Company has not yet begun the process of assessing the impact that the new standard will have on its Consolidated Financial Statements:

IFRS 9 – “Financial Instruments”, which is the result of the first phase of the IASB’s project to replace IAS 39 – “Financial Instruments: Recognition and Measurement”. The new standard replaces the current multiple classification and measurement models for financial assets and liabilities with a single model that has only two classification categories: amortized cost and fair value.

4 Equity investment in PRI

The Company has an ownership interest in Production Resources Inc ("PRI") of 25%. The Company has accounted for the investment using the equity method.

During the year ended December 31, 2011, the Company advanced an additional $215,906 to PRI, which was deemed to form part of the value of the Company's net investment in PRI. During the year ended December 31, 2013, PRI repaid the advanced funds in full, including accrued interest of $29,135; the intercompany portion was eliminated on consolidation. The Company maintains a 25% ownership in PRI based on the 25% ownership in the share capital of PRI.

The investment in PRI as at September 30, 2014 is as follows:

	CDN $
Net investment, December 31, 2012	568,306

Exploration and evaluation ("E&E") assets consist of the Company's exploration projects which are pending the determination of technological feasibility and commercial viability. As at September 30, 2014, the Company has an E&E balance of $1,542,602 (December 31, 2013 - $1,235,329). The additions represent the acquisition of undeveloped land and drilling activity within Texas. These E&E assets will be transferred to property and equipment when technological feasibility and commercial viability have been established. As at September 30, 2014, the Company did not identify any indicators of impairment on its E&E properties.

During the nine months ended September 30, 2014, the Company recognized pre-production revenue of $16,865 and pre-production operating expenses of $67,018 against its E&E expenditures.

7 Decommissioning obligations

The Company's decommissioning obligations result from its ownership interest in oil and natural gas assets including well sites and gathering systems. The total decommissioning obligation is estimated based on the Company's net ownership interest in all wells and facilities, estimated costs to reclaim and abandon these wells and facilities and the estimated timing of the costs to be incurred in future years. The Company has estimated the net present value of the decommissioning obligations to be $625,518 as at September 30, 2014 (December 31, 2013 - $559,751) based on an undiscounted total future liability of $744,257 (December 31, 2013 - $700,853). These payments are expected to be made over the next 2 to 25 years. The obligations have been calculated using an inflation rate of 2% and a discount factor, being the

8 Loan

On June 15, 2012, a corporation owned by a party who has a common significant shareholding (the “Lender”) advanced $1,500,000 to the Company under a loan agreement (the “Original Loan Agreement”) with a maturity date of August 15, 2013. Interest on the loan is 10% per annum, payable monthly, on the outstanding principal amount. On August 15, 2013, the Original Loan with an outstanding balance of $1,200,000 was cancelled, and a new loan in the amount of $1,200,000 was issued with a maturity date of August 15, 2014 (the “New Loan”), with all terms and conditions remaining the same. During the nine months ended September 30, 2014, the Lender advanced an additional $100,000 to the Company under the same terms as the New Loan. Included in the New Loan was a conversion feature, which at the option of the Lender, and subject to regulatory approval, the entire principal amount of the New Loan, or any portion outstanding, may have been converted to shares in the Company at a price of $0.05 per common share until August 15, 2014. The conversion feature on the New Loan did not receive regulatory approval prior to expiration.

The Company may, at any time, repay the New Loan in full without notice or penalty. If the Company is in default of the requirements included in the New Loan agreement or the Lender believes the Company’s ability to repay the loan is impaired, the Lender may demand repayment of the New Loan or accelerate the date for payment. During the nine months ended September 30, 2014, the Company incurred interest of $95,833 (December 31, 2013 - $120,000).

Pursuant to the Original Loan Agreement, the Company issued to the Lender 5,000,000 share purchase warrants (the “Original Warrants”). The Original Warrants were valued at $147,195 and were treated as a transaction cost, and were netted against the principal balance of the loan, which was accreted back up to the principal balance at the maturity date. The accretion of the Original Warrants was recorded as a non-cash finance expense in the consolidated statement of comprehensive loss. On August 15, 2013, the Original Warrants expired unexercised. the New Loan agreement, the Company issued to the Lender 5,000,000 share purchase warrants (the “New Warrants”). Each New Warrant is exercisable into one common share of the Company at a price of $0.05 per common share until the expiry date of August 15, 2014. On April 9, 2014, the New Warrants received regulatory approval and accordingly were valued as of this date and treated consistently with the Original Warrants. On August 15, 2014, the New Warrants expired unexercised.

Security for the New Loan consists of a $1,500,000 promissory note plus interest at the rate of 10% per annum, compounded monthly, a General Security Agreement in favour of the Lender to include a specific assignment of production proceeds, and security over the US assets of the Company. The Lender has required the Company to submit to them certain reports including monthly production reports.

On October 2, 2014, the Company received approval to extend the maturity date of the New Loan until August 15, 2015, with a 10% interest rate that compounds monthly (the “Extension”). Pursuant to the Extension, there would be no warrants offered, however a conversion feature would enable the Lender to convert any or all of the outstanding Extension into common shares of the Company at a conversion price of $0.05 per common share at any time prior to the August 15, 2015, subject to regulatory approval. Any accrued interest thereon may also be converted in to common shares, in accordance with the regulatory policies. All other terms and conditions of the Extension remain unchanged.

9 Convertible debt

On January 1, 2012, the Company entered into a loan agreement (the “Loan Agreement”) with a corporation owned and controlled by a party who is also a significant shareholder of the Company (the “Lender”) whereby the Company received a $150,000 USD loan with a maturity date of one year. Pursuant to the Loan Agreement, if it is mutually agreed upon by both parties, the maturity date can be extended by an additional year. On January 1, 2013 and January 1, 2014, it was mutually agreed upon between the Lender and the Company to extend the loan under the same terms for an additional year. During the nine months ended September 30, 2014, the Lender advanced an additional loan amount of $100,000 USD to the Company under the same terms as the Loan Agreement. The proceeds of the loan were used to continue the Company's exploration program in Texas. Interest on the loan is 12% per annum, payable monthly, on the outstanding principal amount and compounds monthly. During the nine months ended September 30, 2014, the Company incurred interest of $39,539 (December 31, 2013 - $19,726).

Security for the loan consists of a $150,000 promissory note and monthly production from certain Texas assets equivalent to the principal portion of the loan and any unpaid interest.

At the option of the Lender, and subject to regulatory approval, the entire principal amount, or any portion outstanding, may be converted to shares in the Company with a discount of 25% to the market trading price at the time of conversion, at any time during the term. Accordingly, on the issuance and extension, the loan is split between the liability and the conversion feature, which is recorded on the statement of financial position as a derivative financial liability. The liability portion is determined by subtracting the fair value of the conversion feature from the principal amount of the loan. At January 1, 2013, the $150,000 loan resulted in $20,000 being classified as a liability and $130,000 being classified as a derivative financial liability. The fair value of the conversion feature is estimated at every statement of financial position date with changes in the fair value estimate between periods recognized in the consolidated statement of comprehensive loss as finance expense. The liability portion is measured at amortized cost and is accreted up to the principal balance at the maturity date. The accretion is expensed as a finance expense in the consolidated statement of comprehensive loss as finance expense.

At December 31, 2013, the loan had matured and the initial derivative liability that was recognized was removed and recorded as a gain on the derecognition of the derivative financial liability in the consolidated statement of comprehensive loss as finance expense. On the January 1, 2014 extension, the terms of the conversion feature were changed to establish the conversion price to be $0.05 per common share. All other terms and conditions remain the same. During the nine months ended September 30, 2014, the conversion feature received regulatory approval and accordingly, $109,000 of the principal amount of the loan was classified as a derivative financial liability.

10 Bank loan

On July 10, 2014, the Company and its joint venture partners (“Partners”) on the Electric Generation Pilot Project (“Project”) entered into a loan agreement (the “Loan”) with a Canadian Chartered Bank (the “Lender”) in the amount of $500,000, of which the Company is liable for $42,500. The proceeds of the Loan were used towards the purchase of equipment utilized in the Project. The Loan matures on June 14, 2017 and bears interest of 5.75% per annum, calculated daily, compounded and payable monthly. Principal repayments are required monthly until maturity. At September 30, 2014, the Company’s portion of principal repayments and interest payments were $3,293 and $329 respectively, and the outstanding balance is $39,207. The Loan is secured against certain assets as collateral of the Company and Partners.

g) Per share data

Basic earnings per share are calculated based on the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the period. The treasury stock method is used for the calculation of diluted loss per share. Under this method, it is assumed that proceeds from the exercise of dilutive securities are used by the Company to repurchase Company shares at the average price during the period. All warrants, finders options and stock options have been excluded from the calculation of diluted shares outstanding as they would be anti-dilutive due to the loss position of the Company.

The accrued amount is subject to measurement uncertainty due to the tax filing positions of the subscribers, their tax rates and the amount of personal taxes that may be payable and the interpretation of the indemnity agreement, which will not be known until potentially affected subscribers are reassessed for their tax positions by the Canada Revenue Agency and these amounts become known to the Company.

15 Financial risk management

The Board of Directors oversees managements' establishment and execution of the Company's risk management framework. Management has implemented and monitors compliance with risk management policies. The Company's risk management policies are established to identify and analyze the risks faced by the Company, to set appropriate risk limits and controls, and to monitor risks and adherence to market conditions and the Company's activities.

(a) Fair values

The Company's financial instruments consist of cash and cash equivalents, short-term investments, trade and other receivables, due from related parties, accounts payable and accrued liabilities, the shareholder indemnity, the bank loan, the loan, the convertible debt, and long-term debt. The fair values of the Company's financial instruments approximate the carrying values.

Emerald Bay Energy Inc.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

For the three and nine months ended September 30, 2014

(unaudited)

The significance of inputs used in making fair value measurements are examined and classified according to a fair value hierarchy. Fair values of assets and liabilities included in Level 1 are determined by reference to quoted prices in active markets for identical assets and liabilities. Assets and liabilities in Level 2 include valuations using inputs other than quoted prices for which all significant outputs are observable, either directly or indirectly. Level 3 valuations are based on inputs that are unobservable and significant to the overall fair value measurement.

At September 30, 2014, the Company's cash and cash equivalents and short-term investments have been subject to Level 1 valuation.

(b) Credit risk:

Credit risk is the risk of financial loss to the Company if a customer or counterparty to a financial instrument fails to meet its contractual obligations, and arises principally from the Company's receivables from joint venture partners and oil and natural gas marketers.

Virtually all of the Company's trade and other receivables are from companies in the oil and gas industry and are subject to normal industry credit risks. Credit risks arise principally from the amounts owing to the Company from oil and natural gas marketers and joint venture partners. Management does not believe that any significant concentration of trade and other receivables exists that will result in any loss to the Company based on past payment experience. Receivables from petroleum and natural gas marketers are normally collected on the 25th day of the month following production. The Company's policy to mitigate credit risk associated with these balances is to establish relationships with large marketers. However, the receivables are from participants in the petroleum and natural gas sector and collection of the outstanding balances is dependent on industry factors such as commodity price fluctuations and escalating costs. The Company does not typically obtain collateral from petroleum and natural gas marketers or others in the event of non-payment.

At September 30, 2014, the Company's trade and other receivables have been aged as follows:

	September 30, 2014	December 31, 2013
Days outstanding	$	$
0-30 days	13,143	67,653
31-60 days	108,224	6,204
61-90 days	607	56,561
Greater than 90 days	293,474	330,669
Total	415,448	461,087

$293,474 of the Company's trade and other receivables are considered past due. However, the Company deems all amounts as collectible and as such, a provision for doubtful accounts has not been recorded at September 30, 2014(December 31, 2013 - $nil).

Cash and cash equivalents consist of cash bank balances held in both interest and non-interest bearing accounts. The Company manages credit exposure of cash by selecting financial institutions with high credit ratings.

(c) Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Company will not be able to meet its financial obligations as they become due. At September 30, 2014, the Company's maximum exposure to liquidity risk is the total current liabilities of $5,665,328 (December 31, 2013 - $5,183,119).

The current liabilities and commitments are due as follows:

Accounts payable and accrued liabilities	3,679,875	Due within 90 days
Loan (note 8)	1,300,000	Maturity date of August 15, 2014
Convertible debt and associated derivative liability (note 9)	218,680	Maturity date of December 31, 2014
Bank loan (note 10)	39,207	Maturity date of June 14, 2017
Current portion of long-term debt (note 14(b))	22,558	Due within 12 months
Shareholder indemnities (note 14(c))	333,551	Due on demand

The Company's approach to managing liquidity is to ensure, as far as possible, that it will always have sufficient liquidity to meet its liabilities when due, under both normal and stressed conditions, without incurring unacceptable losses or risking damage to the Company's reputation.

To achieve this objective, the Company prepares annual capital expenditure budgets, which are regularly monitored and updated as considered necessary. Further, the Company utilizes authorizations for expenditures on both operated and non-operated projects to further manage capital expenditures. The Company also attempts to match its payment cycle with collection of oil and natural gas revenue on the 25th of each month.

(d) Market risk

Market risk is the risk that changes in market prices, such as commodity prices, foreign exchange rates and interest rates will affect the Company's loss or the value of the financial instruments. The objective of market risk management is to manage and control market risk exposures within acceptable parameters, while maximizing returns.

(i) Commodity price risk:

Commodity price risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows will fluctuate as a result of changes in commodity prices. Commodity prices for oil and natural gas are impacted by not only the relationship between the Canadian and United States dollar but also world economic events that dictate the levels of supply and demand. All of the Company's oil and gas production is sold at spot rates exposing the Company to the risk of price movements.

(ii) Currency risk:

The Company is exposed to the financial risk related to the fluctuation of foreign exchange rates. The Company operates in Canada and the United States and a portion of its expenses are incurred in US dollars. The Company does not hedge its exposure to fluctuations in the exchange rate. Future changes in exchange rates could have a material effect on the Company's business including its intended capital plans, its financial condition and results of operations.

Certain of the Company's financial instruments are exposed to fluctuations in the US dollar, including cash and cash equivalents, trade and other receivables and accounts payable and accrued liabilities. As at September 30, 2014, an increase or decrease of 10% to the foreign exchange rate between the US dollar and the Canadian dollar applied to the average level of US denominated cash and cash equivalents would have had approximately a $15,300 impact on the Company's comprehensive loss for the period.

(iii) Interest rate risk:

Interest rate risk is the risk that future cash flows will fluctuate as a result of changes in market interest rates. As at September 30, 2014, all of the Company's debt, including the bank loan, the loan and the convertible debt, bears fixed interest rates and accordingly, is not subject to market interest rate fluctuations.

The Company has no interest rate swaps or financial contracts in place as at or during the nine months ended September 30, 2014.

(e) Capital management

The Company's capital consists of shareholders' deficit, the bank loan, the loan, the convertible debt and working capital. The Company will adjust its capital structure to manage its current and future debt, drilling programs and potential corporate acquisitions through the issuance of shares, sourcing additional debt financing and adjustments to capital spending. The Company's objective for managing capital is to maximize long-term shareholder value by ensuring adequate capital to achieve the Company's objectives. The Company is not subject to any external capital requirements.

Management reviews its capital management approach on an ongoing basis and believes its current approach is reasonable given the size of the Company. There has been no change in management's approach to capital management during the period.
